8 fiscal year July 1, 2019 through June 30, 2020 (FY2020) shall be determined and implemented in 9 accordance with the terms below. While the Parties will continue to discuss and negotiate, as part of their
10 ongoing negotiations over their inaugural bargaining agreement, the manner in which bargaining unit
11 members may receive or be eligible for salary increases in future fiscal years covered by that bargaining
12 agreement, the Parties agree that this Memorandum of Understanding serves as the negotiated salary
13 increase for bargaining unit members for FY2020 and that the Parties, therefore, will not negotiate any 14 further on the subject of salary increases for that or prior fiscal years.
15

16 Section 1. Eligibility. Employees who meet each of the following conditions are eligible for merit increases

25 employing unit will not be denied eligibility for a merit increase because the Employer did not complete
26 the merit review or PROF process.
27

28 Section 2. Merit Pool. Effective January 1, 2020 (for 12-month appointments) and February 1, 2020 (for 33 No merit increase may exceed 6.0%.

35 Section 3. Assessment of Merit. Merit increases should be based on the assessment of the bargaining
36 unit member's job performance relative to their position description as measured in the bargaining unit
37 member's Periodic Review of Faculty (PROF) and/or unit-level merit review processes.
38

39 Section 4. Application of Merit Increases. Eligible bargaining unit members, as defined in Section 1, will
